

Mrs. Hyatt's Classroom News: August 23-27, 2010

Hello Parents and Students!

We hit the ground running this past week as we ventured into the first full week of school. We have been learning lots and all the students have been wonderful.

Kindergarten: Counting (1-10), Colors, Patterns, ABC (Letter Tt and Ii) recognition, Story Time, Shapes (Circle, Square, Rectangle, and Triangle). We also met Farmer Brown, Mrs. Brown, Cheddar, and the Vick Family and Friends.

First Grade: Lesser than and Greater than, Vowels and Consonants, Handwriting Practice, Color Words, Sight Words, Review of 1-100 Number Chart, Single Digit addition, and Word Families (see August 23rd Word List), Initial Letter Sounds (Tt, Ii, Zz and Hh), and journaling. We also met our Character Families.

Second Grade: Sentences (capitalization, ending punctuation marks, sentence subjects and action), Reading and Comprehension, Final Consonants, Handwriting Practice, Long and Short Vowels, journaling, Word Families, Enrichment Words, and Sight Words (see August 23rd Word List). There will be a Spelling Test on Monday. We have also been working on Tallies in Math.

Look at What Else we're Learning...

All grades are learning about the Days of Creation. All grades have also been learning sign language. First and Second Graders are learning about Weather- ask about our cloud experiment.

Reminders...

Parents please make sure all school supplies have been sent in. Also your children may bring in individual pencil sharpeners (with shaving catchers) to keep at their desk.

I will be sending Homework Assignments home by Monday... Homework is not due back until the next Monday.

Please take a moment to subscribe to the class blog by going to:

<http://www.hyattclassroomblessings.wordpress.com> then click on "Email subscription" in order to stay up-to-date with class news.

Teaching for Him,

Mrs. Hyatt